Your workstation is where the books are.

The effort to find happiness.

2. Proper Noun:

Proper nouns are the names of individuals, places, or organisations. A proper noun is your name. A proper noun is "London." A proper noun is "United Nations."

Proper nouns must always begin in capital letters.

Jane, Thailand, Sunday, James Bond, Albert Einstein, Superman, Game of Thrones, and Shakespeare are other examples.

Example:

1. I'd like to introduce Mary to you.
2. Rome serves as Italy's capital.
3. He oversees the British Broadcasting Corporation as its chairman.
4. In November, I was born.

3. Concrete Noun:

Concrete nouns are tangible objects you can touch.

Examples include a man, a head of rice, a car, furniture, and a cellphone.

1. In the universe, how many stars are there?

2. I don’t have a cell phone.
3. Fill the drain with water.

4. Abstract Noun:

Concrete Nouns Contrary to concrete nouns are abstract nouns. They are items you are not allowed to touch. Ideas, concepts, and sentiments are abstract nouns.

Examples: joy, bravery, peril, and truth

1. He is quite powerful.
2. It remains a mystery as to who killed President Kennedy.
3. Telling the truth requires bravery sometimes.
4. Their existence was miserable.
